

Fox Hill Gardens

Nursery & Landscaping

Plants for Wet Areas: Herbaceous

Wet areas can pose significant problems for growing many plants, including grass. However, with the right plant palette, these areas can be great opportunities mini-riparian zones. Wet spots can give your yard a unique look; in addition, water sources often attract wildlife.

FOR SUN/PART SHADE

New England Aster – Aster novae-angliae

Joe-Pye Weed – Eupatorium fistulosum

Boneset – Eupatorium perfoliatum

Queen-of-the-Prairie – Filipendula rubra

Helen's Flower – Helenium autumnale

Blue Flag Iris – Iris versicolor

Cardinal Flower – Lobelia cardinalis

Great Blue Lobelia – Lobelia siphilitica

Bee Balm – Monarda didyma

Forget-Me-Not – Myosotis spp.

Spiderwort – Tradescantia andersoniana

False Hellebore – Veratrum viridis

FOR SHADE

Wild Ramps – Allium tricoccum

Jack-In-The-Pulpit – Arisaema triphyllum

Turtlehead – Chelone spp.

Wild Geranium – Geranium maculatum

Hosta – Hosta hybrids

Ligularia – Ligularia dentata

Virginia Bluebells – Mertensia virginiana

Solomon's Seal – Polygonatum biflorum

Foamflower – Tiarella cordata

GROUNDCOVERS

Lilyturf – Liriope spp.

Creeping Jenny – Lysimachia nummularia

Pachysandra – Pachysandra spp.

Blue Eyed Grass – S. angustifolium

FERNS

Maidenhair Fern – Adiantum pedatum

Ostrich Fern – Matteuccia struthiopteris

Sensitive Fern – Onoclea sensibilis

Cinnamon Fern – Osmunda cinnamomea

Interrupted Fern – Osmunda claytoniana

Royal Fern – Osmunda regalis

GRASSES

Japanese Sweet Flag – Acorus gramineus

Feather Reed Grass – Calamagrostis spp.

Sedges – Carex spp.

WATER PLANTS

Yellow Flag Iris – Iris pseudocorus

Pickerel Rush – Pontaderia cordata

Arrowhead – Sagittaria latifolia

Lizard Tail – Saururus cernuus